The old adage goes that, "Life is a stage and we are all merely players." With the conclusion of another year at Elizabethtown College, the cast will once again be turned over. Our seniors, the stars of our college, will be moving on to bigger roles as they begin their lives away from our small stage. This book is dedicated to all the wonderful performances that they have given the college over the past four years, whether it was in the class-rooms, on the sports fields, or just living it up on a week-end. They have taken us on a magical ride as we've laughed and cried, felt their joys and heartaches and been changed by them in so many ways.

This year's Conestogan is here to serve as your pro-gram through a wealth of memories and a colorful cast of characters. For everyone who will remain on campus next year, things will be different because our Seniors will be gone. They've been here every step of the way for us, from helping carry boxes on Move-In Day for first-year students through our adjustments to dorm life and finally to friendships that will last a lifetime. We will be forever grateful to them as we give them the stand-ing ovation they so rightfully deserve as they don their

The Conestogan Staff would like to thank the college community for their photographic contributions. This yearbook would not be possible without your help.

Homecoming

Members of the swim team gather together to demonstrate their school spirit and sell E-town themed items. The 75th year anniversary made this athletic season a special one for all!

Alumni paid Elizabethtown a visit in order to spend a weekend with current students, family, and friends.

The campus had a large turnout Saturday for the parade and midway fair.

Even the Dell was spruced up for the occasion.

The Bazooka Joe float, created by SOTA, was just one of the many creative cartoon themed floats that entertained happy parade-goers.

The Lacrosse boys made their presence known to fans.

Dear Blair, We are so proud of what you have already accomplished and look forward to seeing how you fashion your future. Most important, we are proud of the person you have become, and are so happy for you to have found someone as special as Bryan to share your life.

All our love,
Dad and Mom

Dear Blair,
The day that you were born was one of the happiest days of our lives, and your graduation from college is surely one of our very proudest. And everyday in-between far exceeded our hopes. We would love to take credit for the man you've become, but the fact is that you are just "Good Stuff", full of love, laughter and kindness. You are a man of your word, a patriot, a true friend, a family man, and a big brother to others. You are a one of a kind: Grandson, Son and Brother, always there with a great big hug and a smile.

With your Bachelor's Degree in hand, you can begin to build your dreams that you hold in your heart. Work hard and be patient and you will make them all come true.

Your family means everything to you
And you mean everything to us.

Nanny said it best on the day
that you were born:

"He is going to be something special."
Son, you are and always were.

Our wish for you is: Much Love,
Happiness, Health and Prosperity.

We love you – Lots,
Mom and Dad

Dear Bia Bia,
You have not only been my 'big protector' but you are my greatest influence. I look up to you and admire all that you do. I am so proud to be your sister. Congrats with graduation and good luck with all you "pursue". Love always, Nika Nika

Dear Blair,
We are both honored and proud to be your grandparents and to have had the opportunity to watch you develop to the courteous, personable, competent and great young man you are today.

Whatever your path, we know your destiny is to follow your heart and convictions and you will emerge successful in your career, your family and your life. You will meet all future challenges with the same exuberance, perseverance and integrity exhibited throughout your early years, propelling you forward into adulthood with these very same attributes. Love, Granny and Pop

Brandon,
Even in childhood you made us proud, and since then yo uhave continued to grow in knowledge, strength, purpose, and love. Your service to Him will allow you to continue to succeed beyond your wildest dreams.

A High School Senior once wrote to herself these words of wisdom as she contemplated beginning her college career.

"I can't wait for college! I know you'll be fine Katie.
You're strong...
Just remember, things change, but that's okay.
Things work themselves out.
You'll never be alone...
Keep in touch with your friends.
Never stop caring about your family and enjoy them to the fullest extent...
There is no, one secret to life, but love and happiness are a huge part in enjoying life.
Keep focused, never lose hope, and always have faith.
I love you for you, so always be yourself..."

And here you are, four years later and your words still hold true!
What better way to begin the next chapter of your life than to reflect on your past!

Love,
Mom xxxooo, Dad, Brian, Danielle & "Mowie"

P.S. IS this the picture that kept you connected these past 4 years?

Christina,
Congratulations!
We are very proud of you.
Love,
Mom and Dad

May you live a long life
Full of gladness and health,
With a pokcet full of gold
As the least of your wealth.
May the dreams you hold dearest,
Be thouse which come true,
The kindness you spread,
Keep returning to you.

We are so PROUD of you!
Love,
Mom-ma, Bill, Nicole, Jenn, Mike, Nan, and Pop
